ECOTOURISM

PROPOSED TRAIL DESIGN WITH SPURS

1. Fern Gully
2. Forest Understory
3. Chestnut Oak Forest
4. Geological Outcroppings
5. View of Hessian Lake
6. Pitch Pine-Oak-Heath Rocky Summit
7. Rocky Summit Grasslands

EXPLORING THE A.T. AT BEAR MOUNTAIN

PROPOSED DESIGN THROUGH HABITATS

8. View to Dunderberg Mountain
9. View to Anthony’s Nose
10. Blueberry Bog Boardwalk
11. Hemlock-Northern Hardwood Forest
12. Lower Mountain Terrain
13. Oak-Hickory Shrub Swamp
14. View of Parade Grounds and River

Entrances to each spur will be marked subtly as to not detract from the hiking experience of the A.T.

contained within each spur will be a main plaque educating visitors about native flora and fauna. Some of these areas may contain seating or educational displays for visitors.

PINE BLUFF TRAIL SPUR

DEPARTMENT OF LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE
COOK COLLEGE, RUTGERS UNIVERSITY
DECEMBER, 2004

MIKE CORAGGIO  JAMIE MORREN
JAMES PHILLIPS  TARA PIERGIES
PAUL JOHNSON